

Published based on A Guide To Sightseeing In Vancouver, Canada

A Guide To Sightseeing In Vancouver, Canada

The combination of both modern city life wrapped in a beautiful mountain setting provides a diverse experience for those visiting Vancouver and contribute to its reputation of being one of the best cities to reside in. A vacation to this beautiful place provide a diverse range of activities which make it a favored destination by many vacationers but you have to have a passport to travel here if you are going to fly. And now, American passport expediting services are available online, as well as services to obtain a passport card if you plan to visit Canada by car.

The traditional manner of getting a passport or US passport id card has been made a thing of the past for many who understand the wisdom of accessing an online passport website. You can get a passport card application online and the whole process can be handled with efficiency and security.

As is the case with many large cities, both national and international, Vancouver is divided into districts, each accenting particular aspects of interest. Among the three main districts you will want to consider are Downtown where the traditional city experience of dining and shopping can be experienced and the Westside which provides opportunities related to the arts as well as beaches and open spaces. Finally, the East Van area provides a culturally diverse atmosphere and if you visit Commercial Drive, you will find a variety of ethnically diverse eating places.

Canada Place is one of the most popular destinations within Vancouver. This site is a very large convention center constructed in a beautiful architectural style. It is also a bit more than a convention center. Sites highlighting Canada's history as well a variety of movie theatres are available hear and don't forget to enjoy the spectacular view of the city.

If you are afraid of heights, you might want to avoid this next suggestion but for the brave hearted, don't miss visiting the Capilano Suspension Bridge. Hovering 230 off the ground, this 450 foot long bridge crosses the Capilano River and forest. Vancouver's native history can be examined by visiting this park and will provide a fantastic learning opportunity. If you decide to visit Stanley Park, be sure to bring your picnic basket.

Just walking around the city can be an exciting experience. Walk along the Seawall and pass by some of the most famous spots in Vancouver. The walk takes you by Stanley Park, one of the most popular attractions in Vancouver. Stanley Park, the largest park in Canada, brings in people from all around the world to see the lush forests of trees and breathtaking gardens. If there was ever a perfect place for a picnic, Stanley Park is it.

Historic Gastown is a definite must-see on your trip, as it feels like taking a step back into Vancouver's history to experience its roots. The Vancouver Aquarium and Granville Island are also fun places to spend a day.

There is more to see and do in Vancouver than we could ever state here. People from all of the world flock here to enjoy the diversity of the city/outdoor life but they can't travel here without a passport. You see, American passport expediting services can be found easily by going to an online passport agency. If you are going to travel by car to Canada, a passport card application can be filled out online and submitted with efficiency and security. Access an online passport company today and the world will become your playground.

You can also find this article published on A Guide To Sightseeing In Vancouver, Canada, and on the tag pages capilano suspension bridge, card, getting a passport, history, life, passport website.