One of the most famous attractions in Switzerland is the hiking. The Swiss landscape offers lots of variation, meaning no hike will resemble the last. Aletsch Panoramaweg is a trail that will take you along the worlds largest glacier. Its no wonder that this location was named a World Heritage Site. Take a suburban hike through the Lavaux Vineyard Terraces, another World Heritage Site. This location offers an array of wineries that are just waiting to let you sample their delicious wines. If you are looking for picturesque landscapes, the Appenzell Alpine Trail provides a scene of floral beauty that knows no match.

Skiing is also a popular reason why people visit Switzerland. The Alpine peaks provide an excellent destination for ski-lovers. Tons of resorts dot the mountain landscape, meaning you can choose from a large variety of locations for your trip. The beautiful mountain scenery provides the perfect backdrop for the perfect ski trip. The views make the resorts, hotels, and villages a great place to stay during a vacation.

Foodies rejoice, as your paradise lies in Switzerland. The food and wine of Switzerland are world-renowned, with three main staples: wine, cheese, and chocolate. Touring the various towns of Switzerland means sampling different wine, cheese, and chocolate selections. So if you call yourself a chocolate connoisseur, a wine aficionado, or a cheese savant, exploring the cities and villages of Switzerland is a must. All you need is a passport. Things like expedited pass port renewal and passport name changes make getting ready easier than ever.

Switzerlands history promises endless discoveries. The sheer number of historic sites makes Switzerland a place where adventure is perpetually in motion. If you have always wanted to see a castle, Switzerland offers some of the most beautiful medieval spectacles in the world. These include Steinsberg Castle, which sits atop a rocky hill, Castle of Chaux, a gigantic stone fortress, and Castle Kyburg, which is also a museum recording castle life. The St. John Monastery is another World Heritage Site which was originally built in the 8th century. Authentic Medieval frescoes, paintings, and other masterpieces fill the Monastery, providing a unique glimpse into the culture of that time.

Switzerland really does provide a relaxing and laid-back setting for a vacation. Taking a train is the way to see Switzerland the right way, where you can see its beautiful vistas from the comfort of a plush train car. You can experience all this with the help of a passport. The convenience of online passport services offer emergency United States passport replacement, replacements for damaged passports, and expedited passport renewal, meaning you can get up and on your way to Switzerland faster than you can say Swiss Army Knife.
