

Published based on Going On A Trip To The Enchanting City Of Madrid

Going On A Trip To The Enchanting City Of Madrid

Many vacationers consider Madrid to be one of the very best destinations available. The cuisine and museums alone create an irresistible attraction. A culturally rich and beautifully colorful city, Madrid should be on the top of your must see list but remember, you will need a passport to visit here. With online passport sites available, you can get your expedited American passport and in your hand in as little as 24 hours so your excursion to this beautiful city can happen more quickly than you may have thought.

Doing business with a reputable passport expediting service means adding a whole new level of convenience to your travel experience. Sites like these can address all sorts of services: from passport expediting and applying or a replacement passport to changing the name on your passport or just adding more pages. Whatever sort of passport business you need to conduct, these websites can address them all.

When you think of Madrid, one of the first things that come to your mind is good food. One delight that originated here in Spain is Tapas. This delightful appetizer comes in as many varieties as there are pubs and restaurants in Spain so be sure you don't miss enjoying them in Madrid. Sopa de Ajo, or garlic soup, is another Spanish treat as are the famous lamb dishes Gallinejas and Entresijos. Don't miss enjoying a meal at the oldest restaurant in the entire world, Botin, which is located in Madrid and opened in 1725.

Many spots in Madrid are UNESCO World Heritage Sites. Toledo, the ancient walled city, was the original capital of Spain. All the medieval elements and architecture are enough to make you feel like you've traveled back in time. El Escorial, located in the mountains, is where you can find the world's largest monastery: Royal Monastery of San Lorenzo de El Escorial. Alcala de Henares has a very interesting story. It was to be the original Civitas Dei, or City of God. Civitas Dei was supposed to be the first actual utopian community, a perfect urban setting. Later, it became the center of learning during the Renaissance, and is also where Miguel de Cervantes, the author of Don Quixote, lived.

There are so many places of interest to visit, it is hard to know where to begin. One single street is home to three world famous art museums making Madrid a must see for art lovers. Museo del Prado houses classical pieces of art while the Reina Sofia National Museum and Art Center present modern art, including Picasso's Guernica. The third is Thyssen-Bornemisza Museum of Art and contains masterpieces from all corners of the globe.

The spectacles available for your enjoyment are limitless in Madrid from world famous art to authentic flamenco dancing. The shopping experience is second to none if you visit Rastro, a popular flea market where you can find anything and everything. A ride on Teleferico, the cable car, will provide a spectacular view of the city but all this can only be enjoyed if you have a passport. If you need to get your expedited passport, locate an online passport website and you will have your passport needs filled quickly and efficiently, even if you need a passport replacement. Once your passport is in hand, the world and Madrid can become your playground.

You can also find this article published on Going On A Trip To The Enchanting City Of Madrid, and on the tag pages art, hand, Sites, sopa de ajo, unesco world heritage, unesco world heritage sites.