How To Get Expedited Passport Added Pages

Expedited passport added pages come in handy when your passport is still in good condition and not past its expiration date but all of the pages are covered in stamps. This is usually because you have done a lot of international travelling and the pages have become full of visas from other countries as well as entry and exit stamps. United States citizens may add new sections on two occasions. After that, they will be required to obtain a new one.

Complete Appropriate Form

To obtain new pages, A Form DS-4085 must be completed and signed. This form may be completed online and then printed or a blank form may be printed and completed by hand. Forms are available online at the US Government website or obtained from an Acceptance Facility or Passport Agency.

Printing and Completion

Forms should be printed one page per sheet. It must be legible and completed in black ink. If the form is not completed correctly, especially if it does not include the Social Security Number, the application will be delayed.

What To Submit

The signed and completed Form DS-4085 must be sent to the American national processing center for passports, along with the currently valid passport and the appropriate fee. There are two addresses to which the documents must be sent, depending on whether the request is routine or requires more urgent delivery. They are distinguishable only by their zip codes, so care must be taken in addressing the envelope to make sure it goes to the correct office.

Expedited Delivery

Routine requests are handled within four to six weeks. More urgent applications are processed in less than three weeks, sometimes within two. If the passport has to be sent to a foreign embassy to get a visa for travel to a foreign country in less than four weeks or if the holder is travelling to a foreign country within 14 days, an appointment must be made at a passport agency. If the request has already been submitted and it is required for foreign travel within less than a calendar week, the National Passport Information Center must be contacted and a Customer Service Representative consulted.

Overseas Requirements

The requirements are slightly different if the request is made when the holder is overseas, for example, at the American Embassy in London. For one thing, they are not authorized to accept either cash or personal checks. They also cannot accept over-payment. They will accept credit cards, bankers drafts, certain debit cards or an international money order in the exact dollar amount.

Additional Information

Sometimes these applications are not approved. In these cases, the fee is will not be refunded. Ex-patriot Americans living in the United Kingdom must follow different instructions, depending on whether they live in England or Wales, in Northern Ireland or in Scotland. Unless foreign travel is due to take place in less than 10 days, applications may be submitted via the mail.
