How to Replace a Lost U.S. Passport Quickly

Looking for information on how to replace a lost passport swiftly. It is understandable since a lost passport is most frequently noted as lost when a someone is getting ready for an imminent international trip. The effect can be a whole lot of tension and aggravation. It is essential to understand that it is possible replace the last passport in 24 hours if you have to. The following tips will lead you through the procedure.

Register the Loss of the Passport

Unless the passport was already out of date, it is essential that its loss be recorded. You can choose from two options regarding how you want to do this. Calling the National Passport Information Center at 1-877-487-2778 may well be the quickest if you can make contact. Agents attend inquiries during the week from 8:00 am to 10:00 pm. The center is not open on weekends and federal holidays. Another means to record the loss is to send in completed form DS-64. The address can be found on the application.

You need to confirm that the passport is, in fact, lost previous to carrying this out. After a passport is documented as lost, the government invalidates it. Passports located later cannot be re-validated.

Applying to Have the Passport Replaced

Replacing the passport demands you apply for a new passport in person. Requirements include application form DS-11, a couple of passport pictures, proof of United States citizenship, photo ID and a photocopy of the identification document. You also have to present your Social Security card.

Adults must pay an application fee of one hundred and ten dollars while minors that are 15 years old or younger only pay eighty dollars if they are trying to get a passport book. The application fee for a passport card is $30 if you are an adult and $15 if you are a minor. You can apply for both a passport book and a passport card on a single application form. An execution fee of twenty-five dollars must also be paid when applying for a new passport.

Travelers can submit the application form and accompanying documentation at a local passport office. Doing this will enable you to have your application form processed in 4 to 6 weeks if you decide on routine service. You might opt to get the process expedited in order to receive the passport within 2-3 weeks. You are going to pay an extra fee of $60 if you go with this service.

The Fastest Means to Get a Passport Replaced

What are the possibilities if you cannot wait 2-3 weeks to get hold of your passport. The answer is to apply at a regional passport agency. Regional passport agencies provide same day service to US citizens with urgent travel needs. Arrange for an appointment by calling 1-877-487-2778 toll-free. Get there a few minutes before your appointment, go through security, get a ticket and wait to be called. When your turn comes, present the application and supporting documents to the attending passport agent. You should get the new passport given to you within just a few hours.

No matter if it is a question of convenience or necessity, you can opt for a qualified passport expediting service to submit your application at the regional passport agency.

Unless you reside in the very same city as the passport expeditor and prefer to hand deliver the documents, you will have to add the time it takes to mail the packet to the total processing time. Even so, you can replace a lost passport in approximately 1 or 2 days by employing one of these qualified passport expeditors.
