

Published based on The City Of Amsterdam: As Unforgettable As It Is Chill

The City Of Amsterdam: As Unforgettable As It Is Chill

A visit to Amsterdam promises to be a trip that will not easily be forgotten. As a cultural hub and busy city, Amsterdam makes for a great place to either spend one day or a couple weeks. Located in the Netherlands, Amsterdam is a unique looking sort of place that features something for whatever sort of vacation you're looking for. Whether it's a romantic weekend, a crazy party, or a culturally educational experience you're seeking, Amsterdam promises to keep you busy. However, you will need a passport, so either make a trip to your local U.S. passport office or go online and get passports for everyone in your family.

In Amsterdam, you are able to actually visit the place where Anne Frank wrote her famous diary. This, along with many more sites, make Amsterdam a must-visit for those who love history. The Anne Frank Huis is a must-see for those who have ever read her story. Seeing first hand just where Anne spent two years of her life hiding from the Nazis adds a whole new facet of realism to the story, and this location continues to touch and move people from all over the world. Like mentioned previously, you will need a passport. Make sure to see if your passport is damaged or if it's outdated. If it is, simply go online to renew it.

It is important to be aware that the suggest method of travel within the limits of Amsterdam is by bicycle. This is the method used by the locals and it won't take you long to figure out why. With so many narrow streets and lack of available parking, your investigation of this Dutch countryside will be much easier if you choose to take the two-wheel method of transportation. You will also be able to discover many beautiful, interesting sites that would not be accessible by car. You will certainly find a surprise around every corner so don't be afraid of a little healthy exercise. You won't regret it.

Many an artist has made his home and placed his hope in Amsterdam. The artistic talent abounds as well as a vast selection of museums. One of the most famous is the Van Gogh Museum which displays the world's largest collection of masterpieces painted by Vincent Van Gogh. Over 200 paintings are displayed and serve as an irresistible draw to art lovers all over the world. There are at least 50 other museums to keep the art buff busy so plan your trip accordingly. Amsterdam's Diamond Museum serves the interest of many a jewelry lover so gentlemen, be sure to bring your checkbook.

A plethora of beautiful parks and gardens make Amsterdam a great place to just simply take a walk. More than thirty parks are able to be visited in Amsterdam, including the Vondelpark, which is famous for its romantic atmosphere. Beautiful flowers, shady trees, and lush grass make Amsterdam's parks a great place to have a picnic, do some people watching, or just take a stroll.

Amsterdam takes your ordinary sort of vacation and puts a completely different spin on it. Whatever sort of vacation experience you're looking for, whether it's delving into history, biking its historic streets, or channeling your inner artist, Amsterdam has a little bit of everything. Be sure to check if your passport is still valid or if your USA passport is damaged. If so, you can either drive to a United States passport office or simply go online to renew. Either way, having a passport in your hand ensures that you can take advantage of all the things Amsterdam has to offer.

You can also find this article published on The City Of Amsterdam: As Unforgettable As It Is Chill, and on the tag pages anne frank huis, hiding from the nazis, rsquo, sort, U S passport office, vacation.