The Right Way To Acquire A Replacement Passport

United States passport replacement can be obtained in several ways. One of the simplest will be to call in the loss. There is a phone service that has been established for this by the State Department There will be operators to assist you weekdays from 8 AM until 10 PM excepting federal holidays. When something happens to this while you are in another country, you should report the matter to the U. S, Embassy without delay.

There is an office called the Consular Lost/Stolen Passport Section which is where you should send any you may come across. There address is 1111 Nineteenth Street NW, Washington D. C. 20036. You can also make use of this if you would rather work through the mail rather than over the phone to get your new USA passport.

Form DS-64 is used to register for this. It has to be filled out completely, signed, and mailed in. The official name for this document is Statement Regarding Lost or Stolen Passport. This may also be submitted in person at an Acceptance Facility. An additional requirement will be to complete Form DS-11. This amounts to an application document.

The old one will be rendered invalid no matter if the loss is registered by mail, phone, or in person. Should it be discovered at some later period, it can not be made use of for the purpose of traveling out of the country. Send it instead to the address overhead. The State Department will see to it that it is destroyed. You can have them send it back to you, but it will not be a usable document.

The forms to fill out have to be done in legible fashion using black ink. They have to be signed and dated on the first page. It can take four to six weeks for the processing to be completed. The times can be shortened with the inclusion of a check for $60. You can also opt for a money order. The money should go to the U. S. State Department. This will provide expedited processing that can conclude in two to three weeks.

It is necessary to fill out all the spaces that apply in completing these forms. Places which are blank can cause real trouble. They may produce delays that last quite a while. For this reason, a careful examination of the paper work is called for.

If you are in a rush because you will soon be going abroad or will soon need a visa for a foreign country, you can call in to the Regional Passport Agency who will let you know where you can find the nearest office to accomplish all this. They can as well set up a time to go in. This is the route to take when the deadline for travel dwindles to weeks.

A U S passport replacement can be obtained in any of several ways. The quickest will be to report the matter using the number that has been listed.
