

Published based on What Expedited Pasport Name Change Is About

What Expedited Pasport Name Change Is About

The change of your name may occur in situations like marriage or if a court orders for the change. If you had acquired other legal documents like national identity cards and passports, the names will be conflicting. With such, you shall not be allowed to traverse into any country. For one to travel comfortably, it is advisable that you make the necessary arrangements for US passport name change.

Forms

If your passport has been in use for less than one year, you will need to mail it accompanied by a completed form DS-5504. In your application, you will indicate which data needs to be corrected. You will also have to submit an original copy of your marriage certificate as evidence that you indeed changed your name as well as a colored photo that you took recently.

Cost

You should also note that there are no fees charged for these services unless you need the process to be hastened. In addition, it is recommended that you send your documents through a delivery method that can easily be traced in case your documents are not received in time. If you want the contents of your mail not to be spoiled, consider using secure packaging material.

Marriage Certificate

In case your passport was issued more than a year ago, you will have to complete form DS-82 and send it through the mail. Apart from attaching your current passport, you will also include a fee that sometimes changes. Moreover, you will be required to submit your marriage certificate and a colored photo.

Personal Documents

You should consider using the most reliable method to forward your information. In most cases, a traceable method is the most recommended way. The address to which the documents require to be forwarded to is usually provided on the form so one does not need to worry. Moreover, there is one restriction and that is that minors cannot apply for such changes using form DS-82.

Necessary Forms

If you do not have documents that prove that your name was really changed through a court order or marriage, you will have to submit a completed Form DS-11 and a first-time fee. A minimum of three public records showing your place and date of birth and indicating a name that you have used for at least five years will also be required. Moreover, do not forget to attach a colored photo.

Children

Above all, you should know the process you will follow in case data has been entered incorrectly or if you want your old passport returned to you. In addition, ask if you will have to change the name of a child you adopted so that he or she can use your initials. Knowing these steps will help you in case you have some pressing matters regarding this document.

When considering expedited U S passport name change, ensure you are prepared because it is a series of steps that have to be followed for it to be successful. Consider following the tips to avoid situations that might lead to rejection of your passport application form change request. For those that require constant use of their documents, such services will ensure that no travels will be interrupted.

You can also find this article published on What Expedited Passport Name Change Is About, and on the tag pages certificate, colored photo, Form, Name, national identity cards, passport name change.